

Family Reunions

Gather the family for a fun get-together. Creekside Inn is a natural setting to re-live old memories and gather new ones. Three acres of verdant grounds and stone-lined pathways leading to beautiful Oak Creek are exclusively yours. Sedona's hiking trails, galleries, golf courses, jeep tours and other activities mean there's something for everyone. Five rooms are available.

Weddings

Creekside Inn with three acres of lush grounds and winding paths leading to Oak Creek is an ideal backdrop for exchanging your vows. We can accommodate weddings and receptions of up to 100 people and can assist you with contacting qualified coordinators and caterers. Romantic Victorian rooms complete your wedding experience.

Corporate Retreats

Whether it's an executive retreat, business strategy session, team building exercise or client presentation, Creekside Inn provides comfort, seclusion and full-service facilities to keep your meeting distraction-free and on-task. Luxury services are enhanced by the gardens and backdrop of Oak Creek to create the perfect environment for your corporate meeting.

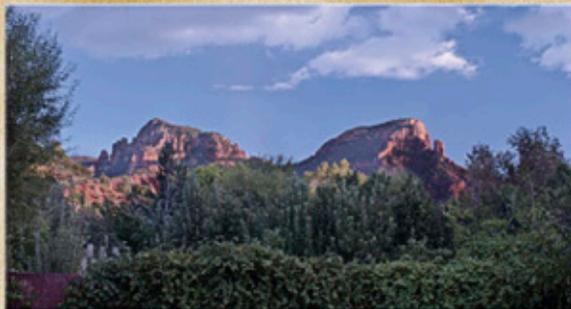

Mark & Tammy Charlesworth

Creekside Inn at Sedona

Nestled alongside the crystal waters of the famed Oak Creek lies Creekside Inn, northern Arizona's premier bed and breakfast. Located within easy walking distance to the world-renowned Gallery

Row and the specialty shops and restaurants of historic uptown Sedona, Creekside Inn offers its guests an elegant and intimate setting that complements the expansive breathtaking scenery of the surrounding area. Whether you are here on a romantic escape, a spiritual journey, rediscovery of nature, or are simply visiting to take in a round at one of Arizona's finest golf courses, innkeepers Mark and Tammy Charlesworth are dedicated to ensuring that your stay at Creekside Inn is not only unique and unforgettable, but one you'll want to experience time and time again.
